Online Book Store Application

Actors

User: User who view book and add the book into read-list, then the book can be rated.

Admin: User who add, view, update and delete books

Description

This use case describes the process of a User to search and view the books and its details.

Users can rate the book and add or remove it to read list.

Pre-conditions

There is already one admin account.

Post-conditions

Admin:

Can Add, Update, Delete and View Book

User:

They view/search the books and its details.

They add or remove it to read list.

They can rate the book.

Flow of events

Admin:

1. The admin accesses the online book store and logs into their account

2. The admin can add the books

3. The admin can update the books

4. The admin can delete the books

5. The admin can view/search the books

Users:

1. The User accesses the online book store and logs into their account

2. The User searches for a book using the search functionality

3. The system presents a list for the search results

4. The User selects a book from the available options

5. The system displays detailed information about the selected book, including the author and description

6. The User can add or remove the book from read-list

7. The User rates the book

8. If the User wants to continue searching, they can search

9. The User can log out after all the activities

Alternative Paths

If the User encounters an issue with the search functionality or login, appropriate message will be given.

User Interface

The online book store should have a user-friendly interface that allows Users to easily search for books, view book details, add or remove it to the read-list, and proceed with the rating process.

Related Use Cases

View Book Details

Adding to read list

Rating of books